Christmas Reflection Journal

Golden hours 2020

MERRY CHRISTMAS

While putting on our "Thinking caps" let us reflect on 2020.

A crazy year for sure, here is a challenge to add some love and kindness into the holiday season

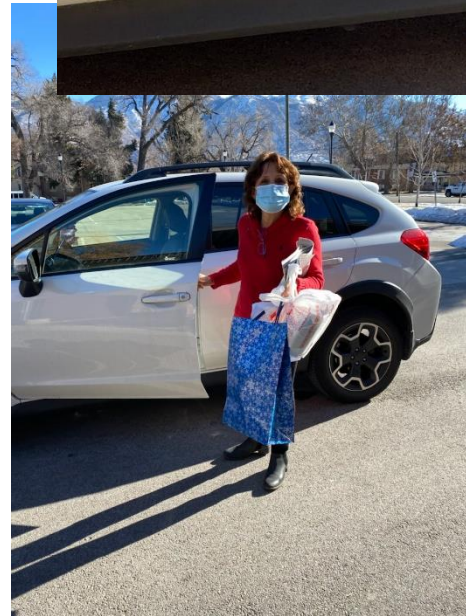

- 1- Make a call to someone you haven't spoken with in quite a while. It only takes a moment, but I bet it will make them smile.
- 2- Send a note to an old friend. A piece of mail without a cause sure lightens the heart when it is sent with kindness.
- 3- Just tell someone how very much they mean to you. Even when we find it hard, to hear the words can really lighten the load on someone's heart.
- 4- Take a homemade gift to a neighbor. It doesn't have to be much. It doesn't have to be fancy. Just a gift made and given with love.
- 5- Do something nice for a stranger. Whether it's a pair of spare gloves or a kind word or a sincere smile you can make someone's day!
